

Is Camp Chatterbox the appropriate program for my child?

If you can answer yes to the following questions, then Camp Chatterbox is an appropriate program for your child.

Can my child:

- participate in, and become engaged in, a structured activity that lasts at least a 1/2 hour?
- feel comfortable being in an activity without me?
- enjoy activities such as boating, fishing, arts and crafts, and pretend play?
- tolerate lots of noise?
- tolerate a varied schedule?
- easily transition from one activity to the next?
- independently access his or her communication device with at least 85% accuracy?
- functionally use his or her communication device to respond to questions that require a specific answer (e.g. What do you eat soup with? - spoon; What items of clothing do you wear on your feet? - socks and shoes)?
- sleep in a cabin with other children and families?
- participate in an activity without requiring one-on-one support to maintain attention or support behavioral compliance.
